

The Glenn Miller Mystery

Press Release/Official Copy

Written by Tony Phillips | Directed by Martin Craig | Music by James Pharaoh
The Stranger – Richard Mann | Tony Perrelli – Tony Phillips

Please note that The Glenn Miller Mystery represents an entirely fictional theory of the disappearance of Glenn Miller. It is in no way a historically documented or researched account, so any similarity would be purely coincidental.

Copy

Future Legend Theatre Company brings you a brand new thriller with a sting in its tail.

Twinwood Airfield, Bedfordshire, December 15 1999. The setting: a damp and dreary dressing room. As a Frank Sinatra tribute artist prepares for his final performance, a stranger enters dressed in U.S. Military uniform... However, something is wrong... a disturbing truth is about to be revealed.

Including real life accounts from around the time of Major Miller's disappearance, this new play explores one of World War Two's unsolved mysteries'.

"Totally outstanding writing performed by two accomplished actors" Paul Ross

"Well crafted and well polished... makes you think about one of life's unsolved mysteries" The Public Reviews

"Is sure to set one of those conspiracy theorists raking through their files again"
Fringe Review

"An intriguing proposition that is well executed... entertains on a highly satisfactory level" All The Festivals

Future Legend Theatre Company is a Bedford Based group whom have been producing and managing theatre for over 10 years. Previous productions include their Pleasance Edinburgh comedies Perki & Mann are Squatting ("inventively stage, slickly performed" The Scotsman) and Perki & Mann are Spooked ("wickedly funny... one of those rare comedy shows with appeal right across the spectrum" THE STAGE).

From 2007 to present day they have been the producers and directors of the incredibly successful Bedfringe.com festival which has seen over 100 acts during this time perform on its various stages.

www.glennmillermystery.com | www.futurelegend.co.uk
Company press contact, James Pharaoh: 07773 669145